Prayer to the Cosmic Mother

Oh, Great Mother, Divine Feminine, birther of the cosmos, lover unto Spirit, Creatrix of all matter and Queen of all worlds within worlds and those without,

We call to you this hour. We are your children, hear our call. We are the daughters and sons of your divine union, the flesh of your passion for life.

You, who lay with Spirit, our Father, in the Beginning of Time, and brought us forth From the blessed union of Spirit and Matter, we are your children, the sons and daughters of your flesh and your heart, and we remember your touch, and the fragrance of your essence and we long for you.

Come into our hearts and gift us the remembering. Come into our minds and open our genius. Enlighten us with your presence. Draw back the veils that we might see, and harken the doors to open, that beauty and ecstasy may live in our homes and hearts more fully.

This is our hour of greatest need. We call you through fire and water, through earth and wind, through all that bears your name. We call all your lineages and all your names. Come to us. Come to us.

So Be it.

--Judy Sion, The Magdalene Manuscript

Imbolc is a holiday celebrated from February 1 through sundown February 2. Based on a Celtic tradition, Imbolc was meant to mark the halfway point between the winter solstice and the spring equinox in Neolithic Ireland and Scotland. For those that follow an Earth Calendar, Imbolc is the true first day of Spring, highlighting some aspects of winter and sunlight, and heralding the change of seasons. During this time we celebrate the increase in LIGHT by bringing FIRE into our homes, burning candles, and celebrating and feasting. We also begin thinking about the new beginnings we want to create! In the Celtic traditions, the Goddess Bridget is celebrated and honored. It gets its name from Sheep...as this is the time when the milk would “come in” for the mama sheep...hence, Imbolc comes from “In-milk.”

It heralds the time of NEW BEGINNINGS!

Mary Magdalene's Feast Day is July 22 when the Sun is in the sign of Leo. THE LEO FULL MOON IS THIS SUNDAY!

This is so fitting for Magdalene as she and Leo both illuminate the mysteries of Self-Love connecting the miracles of self-confidence, self-approval, self-acceptance and self-respect. Within our inner heart flame, the flame of divine love and acceptance, the pure essence and truth of who we are and why we are here shines brightly...all gifts we will acquire in our Priestess journey more fully.

When Leo is in its strength and power this energy knows and remembers its radiant and shining divine essence shared by all life. These words by Marianne Williamson in her book A Return to Love sum up the essence of the Leo mysteries...

We are born to make manifest the Glory of God that is within us. It's not just in some of us; it's in everyone. And as we let our own Light shine, we unconsciously give other people permission to do the same. As we are liberated from our own fear, our presence automatically liberates others.

(modified from the Celestial Timings~Cayelin Castell)

If you are here today, you know this is a Holy Moment! And we, all of us, all the women alive right now on this planet WERE BORN FOR THIS!

On behalf of HER, I thank you!

The journey you embark upon as a priestess is necessary.

It is important.

She NEEDS us!

And our SISTERS need us!

The Planet is changing. Our bodies are changing! Higher and Higher frequencies are hitting the planet. All for our growth. But as this happens, and it is happening to all of us. If we do not know or understand it, it can be scary. This is why all of us need these Priestess and High Priestess Initiations...so we can hold the balance for ourselves and our sisters!

It is good to know we are in good company!

...It has been more than 30 years since the Vatican formally proclaimed that Mary was not the fallen woman of Luke's gospel, and that Pope Gregory the Great had created that story to further his own purposes in the Dark Ages. But two millennia of public opinion is hard to erase. The Vatican's admission of error in the 1960's hasn't really been any more effective than a retraction buried on the last page of a newspaper. So essentially, Mary Magdalene becomes the godmother of misunderstood females, the first woman of major importance to be intentionally and completely altered and maligned by the writers of history (his-story)...

~The Expected One by Kathleen McGowan

But there is more...

So imagine with me if you will...

the love of your life has been pulled from your grasp and killed before your eyes. Imagine that the men around you have tried to discredit you and your spiritual wisdom from the beginning. Now imagine that these men become active in trying to erase your life and your story.

Would you feel sad or discouraged?

...Or would you feel a deep, abiding Holy Rage? The Magdalene does not disappear. She pops up again in the folk mythology of Alexandria, Egypt, and France. She survives this tragedy. And let me tell you, as someone who is a survivor of domestic abuse and violence, it is not the sorrow that drives you out of the darkness into the light, that carries you into health and a new story.

It is anger. Anger is close to optimism. It says: I do not deserve this! I deserve better. Anger that this atrocity has been done and anger that it is still being done. That imperial and colonial systems still oppress and kill women, children. Still discredit spiritual visionaries. Still destroy our sacred groves and oceans and fields.

I say that Holy Anger got the Magdalene away from the vengeful apostles, and out of the danger of Herod and Pilate's wrath. I say it drove her into new stories and strange lands. It saved her.

Sekhmet represents the sacred rage that keeps us protected and reminds the world of the pure strength of female power. Sekhmet is an Egyptian warrior goddess depicted with the head of a lioness and the body of a woman. The lion was considered the fiercest hunter in Egypt and a sign of protection. She is the daughter of the sun god Ra. The red solar disk that she wears indicates that she is a solar deity. She is known as The Powerful One, The Red Lady, She Who Mauls, and The One Before Whom Evil Trembles.

Holy rage, sacred anger, and positive aggression—these states of being are crucial aspects of the divine feminine. It's the female power that ends wars, that brings home missing children, that seeks justice for the earth and for those who can't defend themselves. The brilliant artist and mystic William Blake relates that, "The voice of honest indignation is the voice of God." Sekhmet wants us to come face to face with our true strength. Power doesn't come from passive aggressive behaviors. We don't have to fear expressing our anger directly to an institution or a person that is acting unjustly. Sekhmet wants us to see that anger is an essential emotion.

And Sekhmet is the sacred call to move that anger from pure emotion into conscious action. She wants us to act with conviction and from love. She wants us to create the healthy boundaries we need so we aren't injured again and again. Or so that we can free ourselves from a destructive pattern it's time to end. We have a divine right to draw a sacred circle around us at all times. The protection we invoke for ourselves helps move us from feeling helpless to taking loving action. "

But it saved her for a very fundamental reason.

She used it appropriately! She used it to fuel her Vision...to propel her into the next version of herself.

She used it as the energy she needed to RISE from the ashes and create a MOVEMENT of LOVE that has encompassed the globe.

HER GIFTS:
COMPASSION AND GRACE

The Gene Keys, by Richard Rudd, are a divine download of the 64 sections of the I Ching, reworked for our new age. They correspond with the 32 double helix strands of our DNA, and as such, speak deeply to us on a soul level.

It will come as no surprise to many of you that the Gene Key for Grace is number 22, the number of the Prophetess... “Maggie’s” number... She made her entrance last year. She is anchoring in the energy this year!

“True Grace is difficult to describe in words. The reason for this is that you need to experience it in order to know what it is. Although Grace is a word that is often used in spiritual circles, it should not be used lightly. Rather it needs to be treated with the utmost respect. Grace has to be earned through Graciousness...to find graciousness in the face of suffering and perhaps find something more...holiness, itself, wearing a disguise. It teaches us not to turn our face away from the pain life offers us. We are all here to be tested until we show that faith in nature herself can never again be lost.”

“Grace is a presence that descends on humanity, and like all the Siddhis, it requires that we meet it halfway, which for us humans may seem a very long way. This is after all a perfected state in which everything about you and your life will be changed permanently. When true Grace descends, it wipes out all your past Karma in a flash. It also wipes out the Karma of all your ancestors and all their ancestors. Grace softens your rough edges, puts a permanent end to your fear and leaves you in no doubt whatsoever about your divinity. It also ensures that you never again forget. It is impossible to measure in words the sheer number of blessings that Grace bestows when it alights on us.”

“One who has been touched by Grace is always touched by Grace. If it happened to you one millennia ago in another universe or in another incarnation, it will never leave you. It will go on bathing you again and again. To be in the presence of someone manifesting this Siddhi is to be entranced by the aura of love that surrounds them. It is something you can never forget, and it will stir your own soul to seek it until you find it. Grace is the very breath of the Divine. It is always there, waiting for us high above, if we only persist in our sacrifices. Wherever there is oppression, there is the possibility of Grace. If you can face oppression with a gracious spirit and a forgiving heart, Grace will come to you sooner or later. Grace is a feminine spirit, and she cannot resist giving herself to those who smile in the face of adversity.”

“You cannot hide from Grace. Grace is your true nature. It is your inheritance. It is the soul of the world. It is also a state that is beyond the laws of our world. If Grace touches you, you no longer create Karma. If Grace touches you, you no longer have your own destiny but become a musical instrument tuned and played by the gods. With Grace, all human emotion is instantly transformed into love. It is not a state with which most human beings are very familiar. As a species however we are moving into a new epoch that will be marked by Grace.”

“As a feminine spirit, Grace calls upon each of us to listen and receive her message and blessings. Above all, remember this:

through Grace, the universe has but a single wish– for you to remember that you are love, and there is nothing in you but love.”
