A still life arrangement of ritual objects. In the foreground, there are two bouquets of flowers wrapped in pink and red paper. Behind them are several oranges and three lit candles in glass holders. To the right, there is a small white statue of a deity, a purple fabric object, and a white marker with the word 'Scripture' on it. The entire scene is set on a red fabric surface.

Call in Sacred Space and Open to Receive

I, Kathy Red Eagle, Keeper of the Sacred Mysteries, Pista Sophia, Keeper of the Sacred P:ortal of Wisdom and Enlightenment, Magna Sophia, She whose Compassion cannot be contained, Joyfully hold the immaculate concept of the fulfillment of the Divine Design for each of these initiates lives.

I commit to being a respectful and supportive witness as they reawaken and call forth the High Priestess within and engage these alchemical creation mysteries. In gratitude it is done and so it is this 12th Day of November, 2024.
