Goddess Teachings ~ Money Teachings – LOST!

Money's Original Origin is Divine...

- Early in human history, before Goddess worship was demonized, money was considered sacred and the connecting bridge between the spiritual and material world...and that this belief was prevalent as late as during the Roman period.
- During this time the Wealth truth that has been forgotten is "Wealth is Spiritual. It is Invisible, Infinite and Within You."
- Wealth is Broadcasting all the time...you just have to tune in.
- Exercise to tune in to generate Love and Wealth from within.
- The Lie that we now believe is "MONEY AND THINGS ARE WEALTH."

Sacred Teachings...

Another Sacred teaching that we have forgotten:

- We Are One with all our Good. We Can't lose anything. As long as we operate from separation, true wealth and fulfillment will always be 'out there' no matter how much we have. This Truth is based on the Principle of Oneness -Because there is only One Life, One Power, One Presence, One Creative Principle and One activity – which must be right where you are.
- The Law of Circulation: Whatever is missing is what you are not giving. You can't give what you don't have. You can't keep what you do not give. You can't grow what you don't circulate. You can't accumulate what you can't receive.

The Lie we have come to believe as truth....

YOU HAVE TO BELIEVE IT, TO RECEIVE IT OR ACHIEVE IT.

Signs you may be suffering from this false belief:

- You have a deep desire to do something, say something, create or contribute something, but you are waiting to feel good enough, strong enough, talented enough, or at least not so scared, intimidated or unworthy;
- You deflect, delay or procrastinate or reject opportunities, when others encourage or compliment you;
- You hear yourself saying that you need to do more research, study more, or improve more before you are ready to pursue the thing you truly want;
- You are a perpetual student, always preparing but never moving forward;
- You are doing the inner work, praying, affirming, meditating, visualizing, and then waiting for something magical to happen, in stead of taking continuous action in the direction of your vision.
- You feel envious of others who are confident and pursuing their dreams – they seem to have it all together.

Breaking Free...

- JUST DO IT!
- Figure out what you are afraid of and what the shadow is behind that.
- Shadow Exercise
- Foundational exercises mentioned in parts 1 and 2

Other Tips:

- Consider giving more attention to your relationship with the Goddess as the Source of Wealth and Abundance.
- Remember that Life doesn't happen to you, it flows through you.
- Allow the Goodness that IS the Goddess to flow through you.

Shadow Dancing...

Any judgement or anything that pushes your buttons indicates a shadow – a part of yourself that you have rejected that needs to be integrated. Many times we MASK it by trying to hide it. For instance, hiding a greedy shadow through self-denial and over giving.

Steps to Healing and Integration:

- Identify it.
- Where did you come from?
- How did you serve me and how have you been my ally?
- What is your lesson and gift for me now?
- What do you need from me to take a healthy constructive place in my life?
- What guidance do you want to give me?
- What actions am I called to take? What would those steps specifically look like?

Sacred Teachings...

More on the Laws of Circulation...

- You can't keep what you do not give. Giving primes the pump. If you can't give or are not giving, it's like having your finger over the end of the straw. Nothing can pull through.
- You can't grow what you don't circulate. Circulation is what makes wealth grow! This is a truth that sometimes sounds counter-intuitive. But the truth is if you have "stuff" lying around that you are not using, it causes energy to stagnate and robs you of your wealth.
- You can't accumulate what you can't receive. It's a full circle. You can't have an out-breath without an in-breath.
- All of these lead us to the 7 Gives

Sacred Teachings...

The 7 Gifts that Give You Everything...

- Giving thanks – Gratitude is evidence of the gift received;
- Giving away – all the stuff that clutters your life;
- Giving forth – time, talent, treasure;
- Giving to Yourself – first, because you can't give what you don't have;
- Giving Up – all mind-body habits that aren't congruent with your vision;
- For-Giving – yourself and anyone else who 'owes' you, every day, without exception;
- Giving In – letting go of trying to make things happen.

What if I told you...
