Sky Teachings – Part 1

Module 22

So now with a good solid foundation in the Earth energies, we move to the sky teachings and find reflections of what we have just learned from a different perspective...The Stars.

The personal astrology chart, gives us a snapshot of exactly what our soul had in mind for this lifetime. It also gives us insight into what we were up to during our previous incarnations. With that in mind, we will dive into the basics today!

As in previous classes with me, we will utilize the tool of Shamanic Astrology to understand our chart. I will be reminding you of your intimate crew: your inner goddess and 7 other players that comprise what we like to call your CREATION TEAM. Each of these planetary and archetypal influences play a significant role in your present lifetime and can offer insights into how to move forward in the most effective and efficient ways. Working with them can help you make sense of your life and begin to make choices that work for you.

Today we will be introducing all the players on the chart. I will be reminding you that the energies that we are working with are dynamic. They have their own energies and they blend inside of us to create something that is unique for every person. They are BIG energies. And in the configuration of this wheel they literally form the Law of Attraction.

We will begin by learning all the symbols and players on your team. Use the following handouts to familiarize yourself with them
